

Class 3 EVS Worksheet – One Mark Questions

Section A: Multiple Choice Questions (1 Mark Each)

Q1. Which large, circular ride at a mela takes you high up in the air and brings you back down in a slow loop?

- (a) Seesaw
- (b) Giant Wheel (Ferris Wheel)
- (c) Slide
- (d) Skipping rope

Q2. Who among the following is a local craftsman you are most likely to see selling clay pots and diyas at a village mela?

- (a) Astronaut
- (b) Potmaker (Potter)
- (c) Pilot
- (d) Software Engineer

Q3. If you get separated from your parents or family members in a crowded mela, where should you immediately go to seek help?

- (a) To a random toy stall
- (b) To a dark alley behind the fair
- (c) To the Help Desk / Police Assistance Booth
- (d) Outside the fair to walk home alone

Q4. Melas are great examples of community gatherings. What is the main reason people love visiting them?

- (a) To lock themselves inside a room
- (b) To enjoy with friends, eat traditional food, and see cultural performances
- (c) To finish their school homework
- (d) To sleep peacefully for long hours

Q5. Which of these traditional sweets is commonly prepared live at food stalls in an Indian mela?

- (a) Pizza
- (b) Jalebi
- (c) Burger
- (d) Noodles

Section B: Fill in the Blanks (1 Mark Each)

Q6. A _____ is a traditional storyteller who uses colorful wooden puppets controlled by strings to entertain children at a mela.

Q7. We must always hold an adult's _____ while walking through a heavily crowded festival ground.

Q8. To ensure the fairgrounds remain clean, we should always throw our empty wrappers and juice boxes inside a _____.

Q9. Handcrafted toys made of clay, cloth, and _____ are widely sold by local artisans at traditional fairs.

Q10. Melas are usually organized during special seasons or major _____ like Dussehra, Diwali, or Baisakhi.

Section C: True or False (1 Mark Each)

Q11. It is completely safe to accept open food items or sweets from strangers while visiting a busy public fair.

Answer: [True / False]

Q12. Traditional melas help local artists, weavers, and toy-makers earn a living by selling their goods directly to visitors.

Answer: [True / False]

Q13. Buying an entry ticket or ride ticket by standing patiently in a proper queue is a good civic habit.

Answer: [True / False]

Q14. Loudspeakers and music systems are used in fairs to make important public announcements and locate lost items.

Answer: [True / False]

Q15. Children should run around wildly and hide from their parents in a crowded fair just for fun.

Answer: [True / False]

Section D: Fill in the Blanks (Continued)

Q16. A magician uses clever hand tricks and illusions to entertain the audience during a live _____ show at the fair.

Q17. To remember their parents' contact details in an emergency, children should memorize their parents' mobile _____.

Q18. The mechanical ride that features wooden horses or animals moving up and down in a circle is called a _____-go-round.

Q19. Street performers who balance gracefully on thin ropes high above the ground are called _____ walkers.

Q20. Fairs provide an excellent platform for us to see and learn about the diverse arts, crafts, and _____ of different states.