

CLASS 4 – SCIENCE | ANIMAL ADAPTATIONSC. True or False?

1. Some desert animals go into a sleepy state in summer. _____
2. Whales, seals and walruses need to breathe air. _____
3. The intestine of a herbivore is shorter than that of a carnivore. _____
4. The camel's hump stores water. _____
5. A thick layer of fat called blubber protects polar bears from the cold. _____

D. Tick (✓) the odd one.

1. a. duck b. crow c. penguin d. goose
2. a. bear b. cow c. chimpanzee d. man
3. a. deer b. wolf c. lion d. tiger
4. a. penguin b. whale c. camel d. polar bear
5. a. swim bladder b. webbed feet c. scales d. fins

E. Write short answers.

1. What are adaptations?
2. Name any two adaptations of a fish and explain how they are useful.
3. What is an omnivore? Give two examples.
4. Name two features that help the polar bear live in the Arctic.
5. What is a flipper? Name two animals that have flippers.