

CIVICS & CITIZENSHIP WORKSHEET

Question 1: Look at the rule below. Explain what could happen if this rule did not exist at a school.

Rule: "Students must take turns on the playground slide."

Answer: _____

Question 2: Who is responsible for making sure laws are followed in a town or community?

a) Teachers

b) Police officers

c) Chefs

d) Store clerks

Question 3: True or False: Rules are only for children, and adults do not have any rules or laws they need to follow.

Answer: _____

Question 4: Two students want to play with the same basketball at recess. What is the fairest way for them to resolve this conflict?

- a) The biggest student takes the ball.
- b) They leave the playground and go inside.
- c) They use a timer to share and take turns.
- d) They throw the basketball over the fence.

Question 5: When you are having a disagreement with a classmate, why is it important to listen to their side of the story?

Answer:

Question 6: If a conflict at school becomes too big or unsafe for you to handle alone, what is the best step to take next?

Answer:

Question 7: Which of the following is an example of showing good citizenship at school?

- a) Leaving your trash on the lunch table.
- b) Helping a classmate pick up dropped pencils.

c) Talking while the teacher is speaking.

d) Running through the hallways.

Question 8: Circle the word that describes a person who can be trusted to do the right thing, even when no one is watching.

a) Honest

b) Selfish

c) Impatient

d) Loud

Question 9: Fill in the blank to complete the sentence.

"Taking care of your neighborhood park by not littering is a way to respect your _____."

Question 10: Read the scenario and decide if the action shows good citizenship.

Write YES or NO.

"Ben sees someone being left out of a game at recess, so he invites them to join his group."

Answer: _____