

Class 4 English Worksheet: Nouns -[L3P5: Match Collective Nouns with Unconventional Groups]

1. A _____ of lions rested under the shade of a large acacia tree.
2. The scuba diver spotted a large _____ of fish near the coral reef.
3. A noisy _____ of monkeys jumped from branch to branch.
4. We saw a slow _____ of cattle crossing the dusty village road.
5. A busy _____ of bees buzzed around the colorful garden flowers.
6. The farmer guarded his _____ of sheep against wild animals.
7. A large _____ of ants marched toward the spilled sugar cube.
8. The tourist photographed a wild _____ of elephants near the river.
9. A mischievous _____ of thieves planned to steal the royal crown.
10. The hunter spotted a hidden _____ of leopards in the tall grass.
11. A loud _____ of crows gathered on top of the old temple roof.
12. We watched a majestic _____ of whales swimming in the ocean.

[L3P6: Classify Nouns in Complex Sentences]

1. The bravery of the soldiers saved the entire city of Mumbai. (Identify: Abstract, Common, Proper)
2. A pride of lions attacked the herd of deer in the wild jungle. (Identify: Two different Collective Nouns)
3. Her honesty brought deep happiness to her family and friends. (Identify: Two different Abstract Nouns)

4. Dr. Mehta told the crowd to protect the environment with care. (Identify: Proper, Collective, Common)
5. The flock of geese flew gracefully over the blue waters of Lake Baikal. (Identify: Collective, Common, Proper)
6. Poverty can be eliminated if we focus heavily on education. (Identify: Two different Abstract Nouns)
7. King Solomon was known worldwide for his deep wisdom and fair judgments. (Identify: Proper, Abstract, Common)
8. A pack of wolves chased a stray horse across the snowy hills of Kashmir. (Identify: Collective, Common, Proper)
9. The entire audience cheered with excitement when the actor walked onto the stage. (Identify: Collective, Abstract, Common)
10. Vikram felt great pride when his painting won the first prize in New Delhi. (Identify: Proper, Abstract, Common)
11. The swarm of bees attacked the curious group of tourists near the monument. (Identify: Two different Collective Nouns)
12. True friendship is built on trust, loyalty, and deep understanding. (Identify: Three different Abstract Nouns)