

Class 4 English Worksheet: The Sentence----- LEVEL 3: ADVANCED (CHALLENGING) -----Pattern 5: Identify the Subject in Imperative and Interrogative Sentences

Find and write down the hidden or misplaced Subject in these tricky sentences. (Hint: In commands, the subject is often an implied "You").

1. Sit down quietly on your bench.
2. Did the postman deliver the letter today?
3. Don't touch the wet paint.
4. Are the children ready for the school picnic?
5. Pass me the salt, please.
6. Where is your school bag keeping?

Pattern 6: Rewrite and Transform the Sentence Type

Change the sentence into the new type requested in the brackets without changing its core meaning.

1. This is a very beautiful dress. (Change into Exclamatory)
2. You must not talk loudly in the hospital. (Change into a negative Imperative)
3. It is a wonderful victory. (Change into Exclamatory starting with "What a...")
4. Can birds fly without wings? (Change into an Assertive statement)
5. You should complete your homework now. (Change into a strict Imperative command)
6. Is it raining outside? (Change into a declarative/Assertive statement)