

LIFE SCIENCE WORKSHEET

Question 1: Draw a line to match the animal to its correct habitat.

 Arctic Fox*

 Desert*

 Camel*

 Ocean*

 Shark*

 Tundra*

Question 2: Read the clues below and circle the correct animal group.

"I am cold-blooded, I have scaly skin, and I lay eggs on land."

a) Mammal

b) Reptile

c) Amphibian

Question 3: Give one reason why a whale is classified as a mammal instead of a fish.

Answer:

Question 4: Which of these animals lives in a rainforest habitat?

a) Polar bear

b) Toucan

c) Kangaroo

d) Bison

Question 5: Put the stages of a bean plant life cycle in order from 1 to 4.

[] The plant grows flowers and new seed pods.

[] A small seed is planted in the soil.

[] The seed sprouts and shoots a tiny root downward.

[] A small seedling grows leaves and reaches for sunlight.

Question 6: What two main elements from nature does a seed need to begin sprouting?

Answer: _____ and _____

Question 7: True or False: Every plant life cycle must end by producing new seeds so that the next generation of plants can grow.

Answer: _____

Question 8: Emperor penguin parents take turns holding their egg on top of their feet under a warm flap of skin. How does this help the baby survive?

Answer:

Question 9: Read the behavior and circle the correct reason for it.

"A mother bird feeds her babies worms in the nest because..."

- a) The babies cannot fly out to find their own food yet.*
- b) The babies prefer eating only in the evening.*
- c) The mother bird wants to hide the food from other trees.*

Question 10: Name one animal parent that carries its baby on its body or in a pouch to keep it safe from predators.

Answer: _____