

B. MEASUREMENT — NAME THE FOLLOWING

1. A known quantity with which we compare something we measure.

Answer: _____

2. A unit of length that is equal to 2.54 cm.

Answer: _____

3. The amount of matter an object contains.

Answer: _____

4. What we measure to know how hot or cold something is.

Answer: _____

5. The face of a clock.

Answer: _____

C. MATCH THE FOLLOWINGColumn A

1. 100 cm

2. 12 inches

3. 1000 g

4. 10:00 a.m.

5. 37°C

Column B

a. 10 o' clock in the morning

b. Normal body temperature

c. 1 foot

d. 1 kg

e. 1 m

Answers: 1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____ 5. _____

E. WRITE SHORT ANSWERS

1. Why do we use units of measurement?

2. How many parts does a measurement have? What are they?

3. Why do we often say 'weight' when we mean 'mass'?

4. What are standard weights?

5. Which metal is used in common thermometers?
